CITY & LOCAL ORGANIZATION EVENTS

The Primate's Palace & Its Courtyards

Opening the City Gates

9:00 – 9:30 Primaciálne Square

Step back in time as we ceremoniously open the city gates in a historical reenactment, honoring Bratislava's rich coronation tradition. This symbolic gesture welcomes visitors to explore the city's 700-year-old heritage. Accompanied by the stirring sounds of drums and fanfare, the grand gate of the Primate's Palace will be opened, marking the official start of the Bratislava City Days.

Organized by the Bratislava Tourist Board

Dragon "Duel"

11:20, 13:20, 15:20

Primaciálne Square

A knightly adventure like no other! In George and the Dragons, brave Knight George prepares children for an epic duel – but the dragons may have a surprise in store! This interactive performance is packed with humor, unexpected twists, and exciting knightly challenges.

Cake Cutting Celebration

12:00

Primaciálne Square

We'll be cutting a special cake to mark the 30th anniversary of the Mestské Lesy (City Forests) organization in Bratislava. Don't miss this festive moment.

Open Day at the Primate's Palace

9:00 – 16:00 Primate's Palace

Explore the representative halls of the Primate's Palace, including the Mayor's Office, the Gallery, and the Chapel of St. Ladislaus.

Concerts by Bratislava Primary & Secondary Schools

Hall of Mirrors: Primate's Palace

Enjoy a day of beautiful performances by talented students from Bratislava's art schools.

A Precious Helper – Guide Dog

9:30

Tourist Information Centre (front)

An engaging presentation showcasing the abilities and skills of guide dogs for the visually impaired will bring you closer to the world of friendship between humans and dogs.

Organised by the Bratislava Tourist Board in cooperation with the civic association Psi na život (Dogs for Life).

In the Shoes of the Blind and Visually Impaired

10:30

Tourist Information Center (front)

Step out of your comfort zone and experience the world from a different perspective. This unique activity invites you to better understand the daily challenges of people with visual impairments—proving that they navigate life just like anyone else.

Organized by Bratislava Tourist Board. The guarantor of this extraordinary experience is the Union of the Blind and Visually Impaired of Slovakia.

Playful Courtyard

10:00 – 16:00

Courtyard of the Primate's Palace

Craft your own knight's armor or crown in interactive workshops and become part of the legend of George and the Dragon. Plus, enjoy a playful journey with traditional life-size board games—fun for all ages.

Chess Courtyard

In the Footsteps of Bratislava's Patrons and Their Legends

10:00

How many patron saints does Bratislava actually have? And where can you see them all in one place? What secret is hidden in the head of Archangel Michael? Do you know the legend of St. George? And where in town can you spot the "fail" of St. Florian? What miracle is tied to the Blue Church's patron saint?

Join this walk to find out all that and more.

Guide: Lubica Solanová

One Hundred Years of Rondocubism

11:00

It was hated, rejected, mocked—and yet, this Czechoslovak architecture style is one of a kind. Rondocubism took some inspiration from pre-WWI Prague cubism, and while outsiders called it Czech Art Deco, critics made fun of it with the name "rondocubism." It came to Bratislava with Czech architects over 100 years ago. It didn't last long, but it definitely left its mark on the city.

Guide: Eva Čubríková

Victory of Good Over Evil

12:30

Back in medieval Pressburg (now Bratislava), St. George was a big deal—patron saint of knights, soldiers, farmers, and many craftsmen. Hungarian kings and warriors brought his cult here, honoring him as a protector in battle. The best-known statue of St. George fighting the dragon stands in the courtyard of the Primate's Palace. It's from the 1600s and shows the classic fight of good vs. evil. Come find out how people in the city used to celebrate it.

Guide: Dagmar Gubová

Bratislava Welcomes Everyone, in German

14:00

Want to know what Bratislava used to be called, when it became a city, what treasures are hidden in the Primate's Palace, and why there's a crown instead of a cross on the St. Martin's Cathedral tower? You'll learn all this and more on this walking tour of the Old Town.

Guide: Zuzana Godárová

Bratislava Welcomes Everyone, in English

14:00

Ever wondered what Bratislava was called in the past, when it officially became a city, or what secrets lie inside the Primate's Palace? And why is there a crown, not a cross, on the Cathedral tower? Come explore the answers on this chill walking tour through the Old Town.

Guide: Eva Čubríková

Bike Tour: Bratislava in Spring 2025

14:00

We'll hop on our bikes and follow the city's history through stories and people who helped shape it. Starting from Primate's Square, we'll cross the Old Bridge into Petržalka, check out the new tram line, then ride back over the Lanfranconi Bridge. We'll pass Karlova Ves, ride down Žižkova Street, talk about the old PKO, see three cemeteries, the Chatam Sofer memorial, a tunnel, and a cute little church. We'll finish the tour at the footbridge over Staromestská street, after rolling through Zuckermandel and Vydrica.

Guide: Štefan Kmeť

Tour of Historic Bratislava for Seniors

15:00

We'll walk around the Old Town and look back at the cultural institutions that shaped generations. We'll share memories, discover hidden details, and maybe even surprise some long-time Bratislavans. We'll pass places like Michael's Gate, the Franciscan Church, the Old Town Hall, and more.

Guide: Helena Navrátilová

Tino the Explorer Explores the Fountains of Bratislava

16:00

There are lots of cool fountains in the city center—some with statues, some with ornaments, and many tell old legends or mark important events. They all add to the city's chill vibe and help cool you down on hot days. This kid-friendly tour is in partnership with the Detective Tino group. There'll be fun tasks for kids to solve along the way!

Be there 15 minutes early.

Guide: Iveta Šimove

ESSENTIAL TIPS

1. Keep an Eye on Your Children:

Parents, please supervise your children and ensure they stay off the stage. Encourage them to shine by being considerate of others — be a positive example!

2. Health and Safety:

In case of injury or illness, please contact the health patrol or call 155 for assistance.

3. Stay Calm in Unforeseen Situations:

If you encounter unexpected or tense situations, remain calm. A clear mind will help you find the best solution more quickly.

4. Report Concerns:

If you feel threatened or witness a conflict, don't hesitate to inform the organizational team or contact the city police at 159.

5. Prioritize Safety:

Look after your safety and that of your loved ones. Avoid crowded areas and adhere to designated zones.

6. Lost and Found:

For any lost or found items, please reach out to the organizational team or contact the city police at 159.

7. Leave Only Good Memories:

Please take your trash to the recycling stations and leave behind only laughter and positive memories.

8. Show Kindness:

Be courteous to seniors, visitors with disabilities, and parents with young children. Offer assistance when needed.

9. Respectful Speech:

Please refrain from loud speeches containing racist, xenophobic, homophobic, political, or vulgar content. Such language has no place at public cultural events.

10. Enjoy the Event:

Have fun and enjoy the event with a smile! Treat the service staff, the organizational team, and fellow attendees with respect and kindness.
